Albert Weir Baker

- 1282 MAHATMA GANDHI: 1940 postcard handwritten and signed "M K Gandhi", sent underpaid from Sevagram to South Africa bearing 9p. tied by Wardha "1 SEP.40" boxed slogan datestamp with handstruck "T" and ms. "25c" in blue. The card addressed to "Bro. A.W. Baker/Jesmond/ P/O Swartkops Kloof/P.M. Burg/Natal" with message, "My dear Brother & Friend, You will not expect a long reply to yours of 13th July. Your anxiety for me I appreciate won't expect me to read. I am in living contact with life & with some of the best Christians. I try to follow the light that God gives me." Photo also on inside back cover.

Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi (1869–1948), Indian lawyer and anti-colonial nationalist was the leading advocate of non-violence in the campaign for India's independence from British Rule and for universal civil rights and freedom. In 1936, Gandhi had established his ashram in the village Shegaon (renamed as Sevagram in 1940), five miles from Wardha in Maharashtra and without its own post or telegraph office.

Albert Weir Baker (1856-1951), South African attorney, founded in 1896 the Christian evangelical "South Africa Compound Mission" and made great efforts to encourage the young Gandhi to embrace Christianity. Baker and Gandhi had a long friendship, having first worked together professionally in support of Dada Abdulla, the businessman who had first invited Gandhi to South Africa. In his autobiographical "The Story of My Experiments with Truth" Gandhi notes that Baker "still corresponds with me . . . and contends that it is impossible to find eternal peace, unless one accepts Jesus as the only son of God and the Saviour of mankind", and recalled their first meeting in Pretoria in 1893 which had occurred shortly after the infamous incident when Gandhi had been thrown from his train onto the platform of Pietermaritzburg station after a white man had objected to his presence in a first-class carriage.

Gandhi recalled that when they met he had told Baker that "I am a Hindu by birth. And yet I do not know much of Hinduism, and I know less of other religions. In fact I do not know where I am, and what is and what should be my belief. I intend to make a careful study of my own religion and, as far as I can, of other religions as well."

My Dear Sir,

Napaw-at-sea - 17th March 1782.
N. Lat. 7. 43
W. Long. 24.

I wrote no less than two letters to you since in various circumstances am afraid that you will of them. The first I wrote to you was sent on before we met at sea bound to Bristol, and I sent on board the Commodore's ship with tickets, in order to be sent on board the HMS Porpoise, who returned to England about the 1st of April.

your well-wishes by Mr J. Barker was so lately among you. The night after we anchored at St Helena I wrote you by the HMS Porpoise, which I hope you have received from Bengal by the Melville Castle Indiaman Madras. We have had from St Helena a letter from Mr Barker on board the

Postal History & Covers

- 1717 ✉ 1782 entire letter written on board the “Nassau—at Sea—17th March 1782” with coordinates by John Agnew to his brother in Dumfriesshire, showing two Bishop marks and rated “2N2”. Fascinating contents regarding the routing of earlier letters and the intention for this item, “The Packet bound to St. Helena . . . has just now made us a signal for leaving the fleet and sending any letter we may have on board of her . . . I have likewise served the opportunity of writing a few lines to you by her which you perhaps will receive sooner . . . as the India Fleet homeward bound which touches at St. Helena will have the care of our letters.” Ex Lampart. Photo. £250-£300
- 1718 ✉ 1790 entire sent by James Crichton from London to Scotland immediately upon his return from St Helena (and China), including the comments “Judge however my own situation lately on arriving at St Helena...”, “The night after we anchored at St Helena I wrote you by the Berrington...” and “We have had a most rapid passage from St Helena”. Rated “9”(d.) and with “JY/31/90” Bishop mark on reverse. Ex Heijtz. A most interesting item with a very early reference to the island. Photo. £200-£250
- 1719 ✉ 1816 ‘Bootleg’ mail entire letter to Middlesex, headed “H M Ship Northumberland/April 19th 1816 at/St. Helena” privately carried to Portsmouth with June 20 datestamp and red oval “10 o’Clock/JU 21/1816 F.N.B.”, rated “8” for inland postage only. The sender reports on Napoleon’s well-being on the island and confirms to his cousin that he has acquired the former Emperor’s handkerchief as requested. Ex Groten and Heijtz. Photo. £500-£600

- 1720 ✉ Early Inland Letter, 1817 entire letter headed from “Prospect Hall, St. Helena/March 14th 1817” addressed to Sir Thomas Reed, Adjutant to the Governor Sir Hudson Lowe and handcarried by messenger, the letter written by Mr. J. Legg containing a riposte to his reported conversation with Napoleon reported in the Observer and providing his own full account of his family’s meeting with Bonaparte, fragile with folds reinforced. Ex Groten and Heijtz. Photo. £500-£700
- 1721 ✉ 1820 entire to London dated “St Helena/Novr 10 1820”, the letter commenting how to send newspapers to the island “The safest way to get the papers regularly on this island is to put them up in parcels every Saturday & put them into the General Post Office addressed to me Care of S Twycrop Esq, Cape of Good Hope, who will forward them regularly to me”. Rated “1/4” with framed “DEAL/SHIP LETTER” marking and London Jan. 15 1821 arrival datestamp, filing folds. Ex Heijtz. Photo. £300-£350

Sweden

Featuring the fine collection of the late Christopher Kaye

Christopher Kaye, who died in October 2022 aged 93, collected stamps from an early age. In August 1939 his mother took him and his sister to Stockholm on holiday and as the War started they were trapped there, which gave Christopher the unexpected opportunity to become a Swedish Boy Scout and to learn Swedish. They managed to return to the UK on a secret flight in June 1942 and Christopher was sent to Radley College. It was this early visit, coupled with his career as a leading timber agent which provided the opportunity to travel around Scandinavia extensively, that instilled his interest in accumulating this extensive collection over a period of more than 75 years.
